

United States v. Don Eugene Siegelman and Richard M. Scrushy
2:05cr119-MEF
EXHIBIT 7

AFFIDAVIT

State of Alabama
County of Jefferson

BEFORE ME, the undersigned Notary, Donna Armstrong, on this 9th day of August, 2006, personally appeared [redacted] [name of affiant], known to me to be a credible person and of lawful age, who being by me first duly sworn, on _____ this or her] oath, deposes and says:

My husband, [redacted] was a juror on the Siegelman/Scrushy trial in Montgomery Alabama. He has become very distant and isolated since the trial ended. He and I have talked with my minister and received prayer and counseling. He told me that things were not handled right during this trial, from inferior communications among the jury to the pressure and intimidation from the Judge. He kept telling me that the Judge should have accepted our first decision. We suffered financially because of this lengthy trial, because he was only paid $40 a day. He withdrew from deliberations because of the stress in the jury room. He has been greatly distressed and unhappy by the outcome. He told me that he was led to believe that no one would serve time in jail. [redacted] has had difficulty sleeping, frequent headaches, stomach problems and emotional issues as well. My husband, is somewhat in denial of his post-trial condition. He told me that he does not want to go to Montgomery for anything ever again. He does not want to associate with his family or friends. We have been advised by the pastor to seek spiritual healing by telling our story; that is why I am here today.
